Simply Filling in Time.

Mr. Goff's assertion that the Committee had simply been alling in time for the last two or three days was apparently being verified in the character of the testimony that was being given.

Continuing, the witness said he had heard and read that the Tenderloin was a notorious precinct for loose characters and lewd women. He did not see so much of it himself.

He was asked if he knew of special officers receiving money to permit women to parade the street, and he replied that he never heard of it.

Chairman Lexow asked Mr. Goff if there was anything in the law that prohibited the detailing of policemen to private stores.
